The Last Journey

Nisar Ahmad Bhat
M.Phil English Literature

Flashing lights red white and blue
All those people you once knew
People crowd around the car
The twisted metal is badly charred
The beeping stops and all go quiet
Not a breath comes from among the riot
An anguished medic shouts clear
Think of the people who hold you dear
No pulse, no beat, a silent scream
No one to wake from this horrid dream
A life so great is now lost
The price came at a deadly cost
The change you made in my life
Tearing at me like a knife
I hear your laughter and your voice
I remember your smile like I have no choice
You are my hero day and night
No everything is not going to be all right
I will never forget what you did
You were even the greatest kid
I miss you more and more every day

I always will come not matter what may come

I never really got the chance to say it.....

I love you Sahil with all my soul

You left me with a great and gaping hole
